

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Dwight Peters has devoted over 33 years of his career to drafting, detailing and checking bridge plans, shop plans and falsework plans with outstanding technique and accuracy; and,

WHEREAS, During his career with the Department of Transportation, Dwight served as a draftsman and, later, as a project manager in charge of a group of draftsmen with the responsibility of producing plans and quantities for entire bridge projects; and,

WHEREAS, In September 1976, Dwight was promoted to project engineer as shop plans engineer for the Office of Bridge Design and, in that capacity, has performed his duties in an exemplary manner; and,

WHEREAS, Dwight Peters is the loving father of Paula and Jeffrey; and,

WHEREAS, The time has come for Dwight to retire with Beverly, his wife of 37 years; and,

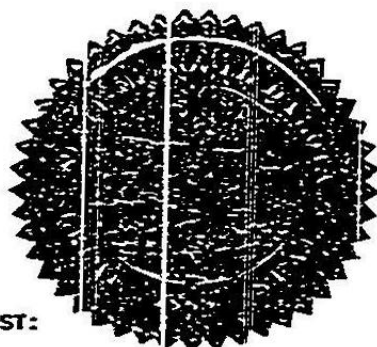

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the years of service and dedication of this fine South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join with Dwight's family, friends, and co-workers to wish him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fourth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety
